Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.

Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats – 3rd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026

Date: 11.10.2026

After consideration of the objections received against the Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats dated 10.10.2026, the revised Provisional Allocation of MBBS/BDS Seats for the 2nd Round of Online Counselling, Session 2026 is hereby published.

The allocation of seats contained herein is purely provisional and is subject to verification and authentication of the original documents/certificates submitted by the candidates and determination of their eligibility as per the applicable rules, regulations, prospectus and Government instructions.

Mere provisional allocation of a seat shall not confer any right upon the candidate to claim admission to the allotted course or college. Admission shall be subject to successful verification of all requisite documents, fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions and compliance with the applicable rules and regulations.

If, at any stage, it is found that a candidate has withheld, concealed, suppressed or misrepresented any material fact or information, furnished any false, incorrect or misleading information/document, or has otherwise obtained the provisional allocation by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of facts, the provisional allocation/admission of such candidate shall be liable to be cancelled forthwith, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against the candidate under the applicable rules/law.

The University reserves the right to correct, modify, withdraw or cancel any provisional allocation found to have been made erroneously or in contravention of the applicable rules, at any stage of the admission process.
