B) DUAL NATIVITY CLAIM

Candidates seeking admission to NEET-based Postgraduate (PG) Medical courses through CENTAC are required to submit a sworn affidavit. This affidavit, to be signed by the candidate's parent or guardian, must affirm that the candidate has not availed or claimed the benefit of residence for admission under the State Quota in any State or Union Territory (UT) other than the Union Territory of Puducherry.

Certain States extend the benefit of reservation under the Government Quota to students who, while not residents of that State, qualify as natives or persons of origin from the State. The Union Territory of Puducherry permits admission under its Government Quota to such candidates, provided they have not opted for or claimed Government Quota seats in any other State or UT.

Accordingly, a candidate who satisfies the residence or native eligibility criteria in both the Union Territory of Puducherry and any other State/UT must exercise a choice. Such candidates are entitled to seek Government Quota admission either in the UT of Puducherry or in the other State/UT where they hold eligibility, but not in both.

This scenario, wherein a candidate qualifies as a resident or native of more than one State or UT in India, typically due to birth, prolonged residence, or ancestral origin, is referred to as “dual nativity.” Candidates possessing dual nativity and who have opted for Government Quota admission in any State or UT other than the UT of Puducherry are precluded from applying for Government Quota seats in the UT of Puducherry.

CONSEQUENCES OF DUAL NATIVITY

Candidates who are found to possess dual nativity and who have applied for Government Quota seats in a State or Union Territory (UT) other than the Union Territory of Puducherry, in violation of the stipulated guidelines, shall face consequences, such as cancellation of admission and potential legal action. The candidate would be liable to face following repercussions: -

Cancellation of Admission: Any admission secured on the basis of misrepresented nativity status will be deemed invalid and cancelled forthwith.

Legal Action: Candidates shall face legal proceedings, including potential criminal charges, for willful misrepresentation or submission of false information.

Disqualification: Such candidates will be debarred from participating in the ongoing and future counselling processes conducted by CENTAC.

PREVENTIVE MEASURES AGAINST DUAL NATIVITY

To avoid disqualification and related consequences, candidates are advised to strictly adhere to the following preventive measures:

Exclusive Application: Apply for Government Quota seats only in one jurisdiction—either in the Union Territory of Puducherry or in any other State/UT where the candidate qualifies under the respective nativity/residency policy.

Authentic Documentation: Submit only genuine and verifiable documents in support of nativity and residency claims.

Honest Disclosure: Ensure that all information provided, particularly related to nativity, is accurate, current, and free from discrepancies.

Continuous Monitoring: Regularly check official notifications, updates, and clarifications issued by CENTAC or other relevant admission authorities.

Importance of Accuracy: Candidates must ensure their nativity claims are accurate to avoid jeopardizing their admission prospects and facing legal consequences

SUBMISSION OF AFFIDAVIT: Candidates should submit an Affidavit for Claiming Residence of U.T. of Puducherry as per Annexure 2. The Affidavit should be submitted by the Parent / Guardian of the candidate claiming residence of U.T. of Puducherry. The Affidavit should be typed in Rs.20 /- e-Stamp paper, duly attested by the Executive Magistrate / Notary Public and addressed to The Convenor, CENTAC.
